

LOVE AND FORGIVENESS HEART CHAKRA MEDITATION

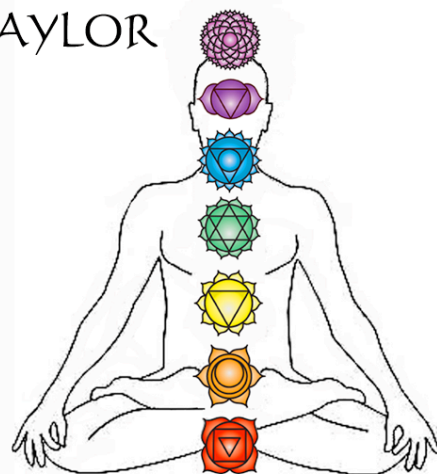

WITH STEVEN LANE TAYLOR

Sunday, February 13th

1:00 to 2:00 p.m.

Unity Church of New Hope

Presented on a
Love Offering Basis

The human body contains seven energy centers called chakras. Each center represents a truth that you must embody to live a life that is secure, creative, powerful, loving, expressive, intuitively directed, and divinely connected.

The Heart Chakra is the center of divine love. And on the afternoon of February 13th, Steven Lane Taylor will conduct a vivid visualization that is specifically designed to seat the spiritual truth of this chakra deeply into your subconscious mind, healing what needs to be healed through the power of unconditional love and forgiveness.

This visualization contains all the colors, sights, and sounds that are associated with the Heart Chakra, and you will receive a copy of the affirmation statements that are a key part of this experience. A CD of this meditation, plus a CD Set of all seven chakra meditations, will also be available for sale.
